Dear Sir,

as we have seen from your last letter, dated March 25, 2011, the Omnibus Objection to Claims has for us been adjourned to April 28, 2011.

We have to inform you, that we spent all our money, which was reserved for annuity for us, into the Lehman Brothers UK Cap. Fdg. II L.P. notes, which were – as described in our letter, dated March 09,2011, company guaranteed with preferred securities.

In consideration of our age and the fact, that we lost all our money, it is impossible for us to take part in the hearing, planned on April 28, 2011.

We hope for your understanding.

Nevertheless we trust on a fair treatment of our interests, because the subject is so important for us and our future.

We appreciate to hear from you

Dear Sirs,

as we see by our documents, we bought our shares XS 0229269856 from Lehman Brothers UK Cap. Fdg.II L.P. (see appendix 1) and this was guaranteed by the company (see appendix 2). So we do oppose the disallowance of our claim.

Best regards
